[Verse 1]

Em                      C
 Children, Broadripple is burning
G
 And the girls are gettin' sick
Em                      C
 Of huffin' glue up in the bathroom
G
 While your boyfriends pick up chicks
Em
 And darling I'm lost

I heard you whispering that night in fountain square
The trash filled streets made me wish we were heading home.

[Verse 2]

And there was love inside the basement
Where that woman used to lie
In a sleeping bag we shared
Upon the floor almost every night
And darling I'm drunk
everything that I have loved is turned to stone
So pack your bag and come back home.

[Chorus]

And I'm wasted
You can taste it
Don't look at me that way
'cause I'll be hanging from a rope
I will haunt you like a ghost.

[Verse 3]

If my woman was a fire
She'd burn out before I wake
And be replaced by pints of whiskey
Cigarettes, and outer space
If somebody moves
everything you thought you had will go to shit
We've got a lot, don't ever forget that.

[Verse 4]

Em C
And I wrote this on an airplane
G
Where the people looked like eggs
Em C
And when a woman that you loved was gone
G
She was bombing east Japan
Em
And don't fucking move
C G
'cause everything you thought you have will go to shit
Em C G
We've got a lot, don't you dare to forget that.
