

Earth chords by Sleeping at Last

Capo: 4th fret

CHORDS

Capo 4th fret

F#m

I dig 'til my shovel tells a secret,

D

Swear to the earth that I will keep it,

E

Brush off the dirt

F#m

And let my change of heart occur.

F#m

Sold soon after the appraisal,

D

The hammer struck the auction table

E

F#m

Louder than anything I've ever heard.

E

Fault lines tremble underneath my glass house,

A

D

But I put it out of my mind

E

Long enough to call it courage

D

To live without a lifeline.

I bend the definition

E

D

Of faith to exonerate my blind eye,

E

'Til the sirens sound, I'm safe.

F#m

Meanwhile, my family's taking shelter,

D

The sparks send the fire down the wire,

E

A countdown begins,

F#m

Until the dynamite gives in.

F#m

The echo, as wide as the equator,

E

Travels through a world of built up anger,

F#m

Too late to pull itself together now.

D E
Fault lines tremble underneath my glass house,
A D
But I put it out of my mind
E
Long enough to call it courage
A D
To live without a lifeline.

I bend the definition
E A D
Of faith to exonerate my blind eye,
E
'Til the sirens sound, I'm safe.

F#m D
There was an earthquake.
A D A D
There was an avalanche of change.

F#m D
We were so afraid,
A D A E
We cried ourselves a hurricane.

F#m D
There were floods,
A D
And tidal waves over us,
A D
We folded our hands and prayed.

F#m D
Like a domino,
A D
These wildfires grow and grow
A E
Until a brand new world takes shape.

E C#m D E
D E
Fault lines tremble underneath my glass house,
A D
But I put it out of my mind
E
Long enough to call it courage
A D
To live without a lifeline.

I bend the definition
E A D
Of faith to exonerate my blind eye,
E A
'Til the sirens sound, I'm safe.
D E A
'Til the sirens sound, I'm safe.
D E A
'Til the sirens sound, I'm safe.
